

es for its members in cooperation with other chambers of commerce and business associations in Serbia. Through a unique concept of fast B2B meetings, members are introduced to representatives of member companies from different organizations, and are given an opportunity to establish and bolster business relationships and initiate potential collaboration.

On 10th May, 2017, the German-Serbian Chamber of Commerce (AHK Serbia), the Italian-Serbian Chamber of Commerce (KISP) and the Hellenic Business Association (HBA) organized a Speed Business Meeting for over 40 member companies with the view of better introducing them to each other and improving the cooperation between the companies that are members of these three organizations.

AHK WELCOME

AHK Serbia organizes a welcome breakfast for all new members. Through a short presentation, Deputy Director of AHK Serbia, Doris Danilovic presents to new members the Chamber's activities and service, i.e. the activities and events that the Chamber organizes, membership benefits, and ways of promotion and support of businesses. After the presentation, the newcomers continue to get to know other members at a joint informal breakfast.

WORKSHOPS & SEMINARS

AHK Serbia and its members organize numerous seminars and workshops on current topics. Additional education and information helps member companies to enrich their existing knowledge, find out about novelties in their line of business and thus improve their companies' operations.

AHK FUDBAL TOURNAMENT

We are promoting the spirit of sport! The AHK Serbia football tournament is a great opportunity for team building, and socializing among players and team supporters, as well as for the teams from member companies to compete against each other.
